Statement Supplement - Lined

Case #: 12-308	Incident Date: 10/11/2012	Victim:	Case Status: Closed

On October 11, 2012, I observed a gold Oldsmobile Cutlass at the intersection of main street and Broadway street. I was behind the vehicle facing east on main street. The light turned green and the vehicle remained stopped. I honked my horn to alert the driver of the light change. The vehicle remained stopped and I pulled up next to it.

Inside the vehicle I observed a dark haired female slumped over the center console. I contacted county dispatch by radio and advised them to contact Lebanon Police Department.

After the light turned red again the vehicle rolled into and through the intersection. Once in the intersection the vehicle began to drift towards the right (south) and onto the sidewalk.

The vehicle traveled over the sidewalk and into the landscape bed. The driver regained consciousness after striking the landscaping and put the vehicle in reverse.

The vehicle backed over several plants and struck a park bench. The vehicle came to rest after backing off a ledge and striking a tree. The driver attempted to leave by accelerating the vehicle but was unable to dislodge it. The driver exited her vehicle and I made contact with her as the Lebanon officer's arrived.
